7 MICHAEL CUTTS,

Case No. 2:17-cv-01525-JCM-PAL

8 Plaintiff,

ORDER

9 v.

(Mot Quash and for Prot Ord – ECF No. 27)

10 RICHLAND HOLDINGS, INC., et al.,

11 Defendants.

12 Before the court is the Emergency Motion to Quash Subpoenas or for a Protective Order 13 (ECF No. 27) by Defendant Richland Holdings, Inc. d/b/a AcctCorp of Southern Nevada. The 14 court has considered the motion, Plaintiff Michael Cutts' Opposition (ECF No. 29), and 15 defendant's Reply (ECF No. 32).

16 On February 27, 2018, Judge Mahan granted defendants' motions to dismiss, and dismissed
17 plaintiff's complaint with prejudice. See Order (ECF No. 30); Clerk's Judgment (ECF No. 31).
18 The instant motion was filed February 22, 2018, and requests an order quashing subpoenas issued 19 to three insurance and bond companies and the State of Nevada Department of Business and 20 Industry Financial Institutions. Alternatively, it requests a protective order forbidding the 21 discovery. The subpoenas were served February 1, 2018, four days before the discovery cutoff, 22 and required production of documents on the last day of the discovery cutoff, February 5, 2018.
23 Defendants argue the subpoenas violate a December stipulation and order extending discovery for 24 the limited purposes specified. See Stipulation (ECF No. 25); Order (ECF No. 26). Additionally, 25 plaintiff failed to comply with notice requirements of Rule 45(a)(4) of the Federal Rules of Civil 26 Procedure, and the subpoenas seek information that is irrelevant and overbroad. Defendant 27 requests an order quashing the subpoenas and requiring plaintiff to inform the third parties that no 28 production is required, and that plaintiff "disgorge himself of any documents received from the

1 subpoena and non-use of the documents” and any other unknown productions.

2 Plaintiff responds that the stipulation and order allowed the deposition of Paul Liggio who 3 was deposed on January 31, 2018, and “testified to new information prompting plaintiff’s need to 4 subpoena proof of insurance from the insurance companies.” The subpoenas were served on short 5 notice to the non-parties so plaintiff’s counsel granted reasonable extensions as requested. In the 6 meet and confer with defense counsel, plaintiff proposed that disclosure of subpoenaed documents
7 be allowed with defendant being allowed “to object subsequently.” However, defendant rejected 8 this proposal.

9 On March 1, 2018, defendant file a reply stating that, although the case has been dismissed, 10 the dispute is not moot and a protective order is still necessary. Defendant does not know what 11 the status of responsive documents is, or what the productions might entail. However, defendant 12 believes plaintiff will certainly use documents obtained pursuant to these subpoenas in other 13 pending cases before this court. Therefore, the court should quash the subpoenas or enter a 14 protective order forbidding the discovery, and order plaintiff to disgorge himself of any documents 15 received from the subpoenas.

16 Having reviewed and considered the matter, the court finds that the subpoenas were issued 17 in violation of the court’s order limiting the discovery that could be taken during the extension 18 granted. The subpoenas were also issued in violation of Rule 45(a)(4), the purpose of which is to 19 allow opposing parties an opportunity to object to a Rule 45 subpoena before service.

20 IT IS ORDERED that:

- 21 1. Defendant’s Motion (ECF No. 27) is GRANTED and the subpoenas are QUASHED.
- 22 2. Plaintiff shall immediately serve a copy of this order on the non-parties served with the 23 subpoenas.
- 24 3. Any documents received from the three insurance and bond companies and from the 25 State of Nevada Department of Business & Industry Financial Institutions as a result 26 of the subpoenas must immediately be destroyed.
- 27 4. A protective order is entered preventing plaintiff from keeping or retaining a copy of 28 any documents received pursuant to these subpoenas. Further, the documents and/or

1 any information obtained by reviewing them shall not be shared with or disseminated
2 to any persons or entities including any of AcctCorp's competitors.

3 5. Plaintiff shall have until March 14, 2018, to file a certificate of compliance with this 4 order.

5 DATED this 8th day of March, 2018.
